INTRODUCTION

Bainbridge Island is home to thriving cultural institutions, and to many artists, writers, musicians, and craftspeople, serving a local and regional public and many tourists. The forms of art and culture that we celebrate are as diverse as our population; they are embedded in our history and our economy. Although a Cultural Element is not required in Comprehensive Plans under the Growth Management Act, ours was added in 1998 to recognize the contributions of cultural institutions and many dedicated individuals to our quality of life.

There are specific and compelling reasons for including a Cultural Element in the Comprehensive Plan. Arts and humanities include visual, performing, and literary arts, museums, historical sites and landmarks, and many other cultural institutions. The arts and humanities are mechanisms for developing larger community values that are rooted in the interests of citizens such as economic vitality, quality education, and community planning and design and are unto themselves a valuable element of the Island's rich character. Support for the arts and humanities is an investment in the community.

The economic identity and vibrancy of Bainbridge Island is based upon its unique cultural values. These values have been historically developed and shaped by generations of Island residents. Invention, creativity, diversity and generosity of spirit and expression have led to the development of Island organizations, events, programs and individual pursuits allowing the community to flourish, enhancing its quality of life.

This Cultural Element continues to recognize that the arts and humanities significantly contribute to the City's identity, sense of place, and economy.

CULTURAL VISION 2036

Arts and humanities are an integral part of the community fabric. They contribute to the economic vitality, community character, livability, and quality of life of Bainbridge Island. The City includes funding for the arts and humanities in its biennial budget. This funding also supports local artists. Public art displays on City-owned property provide professional development opportunities for artists. A variety of housing alternatives are available to artists to enable them to live and work in the community.

Education programs to enhance understanding and appreciation for the history and heritage of Bainbridge Island are conducted for residents and visitors. The City's Historic Preservation program has preserved historic and cultural resources and farmland. The traditional cultures of the area, kept alive by our Suquamish neighbors and other Tribes, provide diversity and a living connection to our Island's Indigenous past. Bainbridge Island is recognized nationally as a center of artistic excellence.
